

2009 OHS CODE CHANGES & EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLANNING

Application has been made for certification maintenance points from the BCRSP, CRBOH, & ABH.

Workplace Health and Safety has released the OHS Code 2009 that replaces the previous 2006 edition. The changes have an effective date of July 1, 2009. A representative from Workplace will provide an overview of the changes.

Based on feedback received from CSSE members, we have organized a session on Emergency Response Planning.

When: May 28, 2009 from 8:00am - 5:00pm

Where: Sheraton Cavalier Hotel
2620—32 Avenue NE
Calgary AB T1Y 6B8

Cost: $115 for CSSE Chapter members
$135 for non-affiliates

The seminar cost includes a continental breakfast, lunch and course materials.

Pre-Registration online at the CSSE website (www.cssecalgary.com)
Registration will be on a first-come first-served basis.

SECTION 1: 2009 OHS Code Update

Diane Radnoff, Senior Occupational Hygienist, Workplace Policy and Standards Development Branch will provide an overview of the changes to the OHS Code in 2009 for session attendees.

This will include an overview of the most significant changes to the OHS Code for 2009 and will include opportunity for attendees to ask questions.

SECTION 2: EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLANNING

Richard Bennett is a firefighter, EMT and a businessman. He is the President of Disaster Program Criteria where he teaches Incident Command and conducts Preparedness Audits for government and industry. In addition, Richard is a Director of the Bureau for Disaster Management Instructors.

This part of the program will provide an overview of Emergency Response Planning for our workplaces.

This is a tremendous opportunity to hear first hand about the changes to the OHS Code and learn how you can plan for emergency situations in your workplace. Don't miss out on the chance to get up to speed on these important topics!
